

References for “Diffusion in Biology”:

Diffusion:

H.C. Berg, Random Walks in Biology

P. Nelson, Biological Physics: Energy, Information and Life (Chapter 4: “Random Walks, Friction and Diffusion”)

Fluctuation-dissipation theorem:

B. G. deGroot, “A simple model for Brownian motion leading to Langevin equation”, Am. J. Phys. 67, 1248 (1999).

D. Chandler, Introduction to Modern Statistical Mechanics (Chapter 8: “Statistical Mechanics of Nonequilibrium Systems”)

J. P. Sethna, Entropy, Order Parameters and Complexity (Chapter 10: “Correlations, Response and Dissipation”)

L. Landau and E. M. Lifshitz, Statistical Physics (Chapter 12: “Fluctuations”)

Articles:

H.C. Berg and E. M. Purcell, “Physics of Chemoreception”, Biophysical Journal 20, 193 (1977).

W. Bialek and S. Setayeshgar, “Physical limits to biochemical signaling”, arXiv: physics/0301001.

W. Bialek and S. Setayeshgar, “Cooperativity, sensitivity and noise in biochemical signaling”, arXiv: q-bio/0601001.

J. K. Wagner, S. Setayeshgar, L. A. Sharon, J. P. Reilly, and Y. V. Brun, “A nutrient uptake role for bacterial cell envelope extensions”, PNAS 11772 (2006).